

We do not want banks able to be an exception to the "Do Not Call" list. Non-profits are an exception, and they interrupt our home time. We do not want our "home time" to be interrupted by telephone informercials. If you change the laws for one type of business, where does it stop? Thank You. Earl & Julie Kunzer